

YORK POLICE CADETS

By Gina Wright
Cadet Liaison Officer

WHAT ARE VOLUNTEER POLICE CADETS?

The Volunteer Police Cadets (VPC) are a uniformed Police youth group throughout England & Wales.

The Police Cadets teach young people new skills and show what it's like to be part of the Police Service. Cadets get involved in fun events and assist Officers with activities in their local community.

WHAT DO POLICE CADETS DO?

Police Cadets meet once a week from 6-8pm on a Thursday evening during term time

During sessions, cadets:

- Learn about policing and the law
- Take part in teamwork activities and challenges
- Learn drill and discipline

Cadets also:

- Work alongside police officers and staff when supporting local policing events and operations
- Attend community events and public engagements
- Make friends and have fun while learning new skills

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF BEING A POLICE CADET?

- Gain an insight into British Policing
- Increase your confidence and enhance your CV
- Gain new skills and experience
- Build leadership and communication skills
- Meet new people
- Make a difference in your local community
- Get involved in exciting events

A large stone castle tower stands on a grassy hill. In the foreground, a large tree with sparse yellow and brown leaves is visible. A group of people, including several in dark uniforms with 'VOLUNTEER POLICE CADET' on their backs, are gathered on a paved area in front of the hill. Other people in casual clothing are also present. The sky is clear and blue.

LEARN HOW TO MARCH

A yellow and blue BMW police car is shown from a front-three-quarter view. The car has 'POLICE' written on the hood and the license plate 'YJ72 EFN'. It is parked on a paved surface with a grassy field and a wooden fence in the background under a cloudy sky. A dark semi-transparent box is overlaid on the left side of the car, containing white text.

SEPTEMBER

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN YOU START?

You'll be invited to your first session in September where you'll meet new people and have fun

Get measured up and received your uniform which is free

You'll learn what police officers do, build confidence, teamwork and discipline (no experience needed!)

You'll start to prepare for your passing out parade where you become an official North Yorkshire Police Cadet

After your passing out parade you can get involved at community events and police operations and have fun while learning new skills

WHAT DOES A PASSING OUT CEREMONY LOOK LIKE?

PASSING OUT CEREMONY

Your passing out ceremony will take place after you complete your initial training, your family and friends will be invited to attend the event

A senior officer will attend to conduct a uniform inspection and present you with your attestation certificate

You will take the cadet oath as you officially join the North Yorkshire Police family

Afterwards we celebrate with photos, drinks, cake and biscuits!

Being a police cadet is a chance to get involved, give back to your community, and find out what it's really like to be part of the police family
